MEMORANDUM FOR: Coordinator for Academic Relations, NFAC
SUBJECT : Request to Speak Before a Group

The Alumni Association of my alma mater, Northwest Nazarene College, has asked me to address the student body regarding the effect of the college and its liberal arts curriculum on my professional life, and to attend two classes in my major field to speak to the students, on 11 May 1979. NNC is in Nampa, Idaho.

Attachment: Outline of Talk

I have reviewed the attached outline and found it to be unclassified.

Outline for Talk to be Given at Northwest Nazarene College
11 May 1979

- Importance of liberal arts curriculum for future professional work, as well as general enjoyment of life.
- Importance of the sense of goals, values and direction in life learned at NNC.
- Actual effect of a history degree obtained at NNC when applying to graduate schools.
- Importance of a well-rounded background when applying for government work, especially at the CIA.
- A few comments about the CIA and its need for academically trustworthy people in a time when it is under increasing attack for faulty analysis.
- My own personal views of the need for intelligence in order to maintain viable nationhood in the Twentieth Century.

In addition to this brief talk in a morning assembly, I will be going to two classes, International Relations and American Nationalism, and I will be meeting with small groups of students and faculty throughout the day. To prepare myself for the kinds of questions I may be asked, I have met with [redacted] in Public Affairs and attended a session in which students from Harding College asked questions of Agency personnel.
